BILL OF LADING

Shipped on board the Vessel, the Goods, in packages and in contents the same as described herein, in apparent good order and condition except where otherwise indicated herein, to be carried to the port of discharge or each port or place as indicated in the Carrier under the terms and conditions of this Bill of Lading, with or without transshipment, at the Vessel under other connecting conveyances, and shall get, and to be delivered there in like order and condition save order or weight, subject to the terms, conditions and exceptions on the face and back hereof.

If required by the Carrier, this Bill of Lading duly endorsed must be surrendered to the carrier for the Goods or delivery order.

In accepting this Bill of Lading, the Merchant agrees to be bound by all its regulations, conditions, terms and conditions on the face and back hereof, whether written, printed, stamped or posted, or fully or if signed by the Merchant, any local custom or practice to the contrary notwithstanding and agrees that all agreements or single engagements for and in connection with the carriage of the Goods are superseded by this Bill of Lading.

In witness whereof, the undersigned, on behalf of Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the Master and the crew of the Vessel, has signed the number of Bills of Lading stated herein, all of this tenor and date, one of which being authenticated, the others to stand void.
